

Making Memories

Creating hospital memory books are important for families. Taking photographs in the hospital, getting signatories and photos with staff and celebrities, showing normal play activities are a visual aid when demonstrating progress to all the family. Ideas:

- hand prints
- photographs from home with family and friends and also in the hospital
- signatories
- hospital bracelets
- “what I like to do for fun” page